

NHS Professionals in conjunction with Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust are looking for:

General Theatre Nurses (Flexible and long term opportunities available)

Locations covered: Oxford, John Radcliffe, Horton, Churchill, Nuffield

Pay rate:            Day rate:                            £21.67 per hour paid weekly
                             Night/Saturday rate:            £28.18 per hour paid weekly
                             Sunday/Bank Holiday rate:    £34.69 per hour paid weekly

Working in partnership with Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation trust, we are looking for dedicated and passionate General Theatre Nurses/Practitioners, who want to work for a forward thinking Trust, focused on delivering compassionate care. Working for OUH Bank if fully flexible, you can work from one shift per month to full time hours, we have shifts available to accommodate and we pay weekly! In addition to this, you can also accrue holiday and contribute to our NHSP Stakeholder Pension Scheme.

Surgical services at OUH are a key part to the delivery of high quality critical and clinical care by the trust. Working on a variety of both general and specialist surgeries, this is a fantastic opportunity to join the bank to support a team of skilled and dedicated professionals within their field.

The post holder should be able to:

- To be aware of the management of drugs and to adhere to local policies and administer drugs as required
- Work within the guidelines of NMC and HPC Codes of Practice (depending on registration)
- Plan and prepare equipment according to patients needs/procedures
- Monitor and assess patient's condition, responding to any changes as required
- Direct/participate in the manoeuvring and the positioning of conscious and unconscious patients
- Handover and transferring responsibility of care to colleagues – relaying important information
- Supporting and re-assessing patients and relatives/carers during perioperative procedures
- Implement and evaluate care plans
- Maintain accurate patient and theatre records
- Supervise and mentor junior grades, including delegation of patient care to members of staff with an appropriate level of skill
- Lead a team when required, ensuring a high standard of patient care is delivered
- Monitor/order stock and supplies, rotating stock as necessary

In order to apply for a post you must have a minimum of 6 months experience in a similar role held within the last 2 years and hold NMC Registered Nurse (RN1) qualification.

In return for your hard work and your professional, caring and reliable service you will have access to the following benefits:

- competitive, weekly pay
- first choice of available bank shifts
- access to 24 hour service centre and online booking portal
- access to the NHSP Stakeholder Pension
- paid annual leave, statutory maternity and paternity pay (subject to qualifying criteria)
- training and development opportunities
- A flexible way of working

Please note that you will be contacted via email throughout the recruitment process, so please check your emails regularly.

Registration with NHS Professionals is subject to employment history and reference checking and offers of registration are therefore conditional upon the receipt of satisfactory references.

We regret we cannot contact everyone who is not selected for an interview, therefore if you do not hear from us within 21 days after submitting your application, please assume you have not been successful on this occasion.